Carl A. Ross Appalachian Studies Memorial Scholarship

This award was established by family, friends, and colleagues to honor Carl A. Ross’s work on behalf of his students. Carl Ross was professor of History and Director of the Center for Appalachian Studies at Appalachian State University at the time of his death in 1988. This scholarship fund was created in memory of a gifted educator whose presence, good nature, deep booming voice, generosity of spirit, stories, love for the south and the Appalachian region, and for Appalachian State University will continue to live on through support for the education of a gifted student.

Eligibility Requirements:
The Ross scholarship of up to $500, is available annually to either an undergraduate Appalachian Studies major or Appalachian Studies graduate student.

Applicants should submit to the Carl A. Ross Scholarship Committee:
(1) a 1-2 page letter of application describing your interests and goals in Appalachian Studies and your need for financial assistance

(2) an unofficial college transcript

(3) a letter of support from a faculty member familiar with your academic performance

Applications must be submitted by April 15 to:
Carl A. Ross Scholarship Committee
c/o Center for Appalachian Studies
Appalachian State University
305 Bodenheimer Dr.
P.O. Box 32018
Boone, NC 28608-2018

For further information, please contact:
Dr. Patricia D. Beaver, Center Director beaverpd@appstate.edu
(828) 262-4089
Dr. Katherine Ledford, Program Director ledfordke@appstate.edu
(828) 262-4089

3/20/2012